

ASSOCIATION OF NOVA SCOTIA LAND SURVEYORS

SEMINAR—67th ANNUAL MEETING, Fox Harbour Resort, Wallace, NS

Saturday October 14, 2017 9:00 am—4:30 pm

GIS now and the next decade

James Boxall

Teaches Geography (Earth Sciences) and Marine Affairs at Dalhousie University B.A. (Geography), Saint Mary's University; B. Ed. M. A. (Education); MLIS

(Spatial Information Management), Dalhousie University. Presently co-editing a book on GIScience Research and Education in Canada, as well as co-authoring a book on Future Earth and Space Technologies .

Shaping up for Business and Life

Dr. David Scott (Scotty)

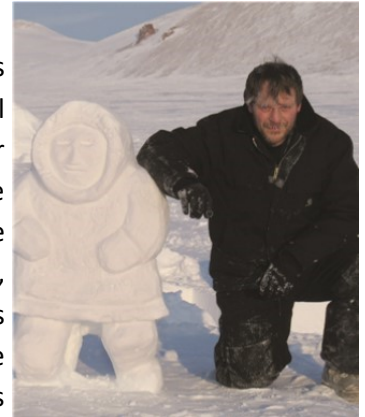

Graduated with a degree in Sport Science and with a teaching certificate from University of Ulster in Belfast, Northern Ireland, an MA in Sport and Exercise Psychology, an MA in Psychology, and a Ph.D. in Sport and Exercise Psychology at the University of Victoria. He has been a consultant with a large number of teams and organizations including, the Vancouver Canucks, the Philadelphia Flyers, and the Florida Panthers of the National Hockey League. He is currently a consultant with the Montreal Canadiens of the NHL, the St. John's IceCaps of the American Hockey League, and the Saint John Sea Dogs of the QMJHL.

The Search for Franklin's Vessels

George Schlagintweit

Depending on when, George is either the Manager of National Projects or Acting Director for Central & Arctic Region of the Canadian Hydrographic Service (CHS). In his Manager capacity, George's primary objective is to identify, secure and allocate all available funding sources towards the collection of hydrography in the Great Lakes and all of Canada's Arctic. George has worked for the CHS for 32 years, starting as Junior Hydrographer and working his way up to Hydrographer-in-Charge. He holds a Survey Technology diploma from British Columbia Institute of Technology and a Canada Lands Surveyor Commission. George was President of the Association of Canada Lands Surveyors in 2010.

Fox Harb'r—A Down East Resort

Kevin Toth

President, Fox Harb'r Golf Resort & Spa.

Kevin has managed some of Canada's premier luxury destination resort & hotels across Canada, including renown resorts such as Jasper Park Lodge, Chateau Whistler and Deerhurst Resort.

He has been involved in overseeing major renovation projects in such landmark historic hotels including Chateau Laurier, Hotel Macdonald and The King Edward Hotel. In 2005, Kevin entered the recreational vacation development field and has developed and marketed a luxury ocean front residential development in B.C., a master planned development along the shores of Lake Huron and two major ski and golf real estate developments in Muskoka. Kevin is responsible for the execution on the Master Development Plan of Fox Harb'r Resort on behalf of the resort owner Ron Joyce.

